

OPEN DOORS: CHALLENGES AND ACHIEVEMENTS IN ORGAN DONATION AND TRANSPLANTATION

WHEN: April 27, 2022, 12:00-17:00 EEST (11:00-16:00 CEST)
Online and Face-to-Face

WHERE: University of Latvia, Academic Centre, House of Science, 3 Jelgavas street, Riga, Latvia

REGISTRATION is free but mandatory
<https://ej.uz/OpenDoors>

LANGUAGE: English

ON-LINE (the link will be sent after registration)

5 credit points of continuing education will be granted for attendance.

Information: liga.grudule@stradini.lv

OPEN DOORS: CHALLENGES AND ACHIEVEMENTS IN ORGAN DONATION AND TRANSPLANTATION

Location: University of Latvia, Academic Centre, House of Science, 3 Jelgavas street, Riga
For online streaming the connection link will be sent before the event.

WEDNESDAY, April 27, 2022, 12:00-17:00 EEST (11:00-16:00 CEST)

12:00 Registration

13:00 Welcome message

Indriķis Muižnieks, Rector of the University of Latvia

Ilze Kreicberga, Member of the Management Board, Pauls Stradins Clinical University Hospital

13:20 Patient perspective – round table (transplanted patients, donor families, kidney living couples)

Moderator Vita Šteina, Head of of Patient Experience and Customer Management, Children's Clinical University Hospital, Latvia

14:50 Liver and hepatocyte transplantation, perfusion machines

Carl Jorns, Head of Liver Transplantation, Karolinska University Hospital, Sweden

15:20 Organ donation international

Chloë Ballesté Delpierre, Director of International Cooperation & Development, Donation & Transplantation Institute Foundation, Spain

15:50 Coffee break

16:10 Kidney transplantation, perfusion machines, future challenges

Jānis Jušinskis, Head of Latvian Transplantation Center, Pauls Stradins Clinical University Hospital, Latvia

16:30 Lifelong learning, knowledge exchange between academical field and clinical environment

Melania Istrate, Head of Education and Learning Development, European Society of Intensive Care Medicine, Belgium

Eva Šteina, Anaesthesiologist-reanimatologist, Pauls Stradins Clinical University Hospital, Latvia

17:00 Closing

Participation is free of charge, but registration is compulsory: <https://ej.uz/OpenDoors>